Poland

Organization: Stowarzyszenie na Rzecz Dzieci z Chorobami Krwi w Lublinie (Association for Children with Blood Diseases in Lublin)

Project Site: Lublin, Poland

Objective: The Department of Paediatric Haematology, Oncology and Transplantology at Medical University of Lublin serves children with blood diseases (hemophilia, hemorrhagic diathesis, anemias) and neoplastic diseases (all types of pediatric cancers) from the entire Lublin macroregion. The hospital ward was recently renovated, but there were no funds to replace the furniture. This project aims to purchase new furniture for the patients' rooms in order to help the children feel a little more like they were in their own home and own room. It is important because children and their parents often spend long weeks or months in the hospital and the project aims to create a new friendly environment for the children to escape the negativity of their treatment. The grant will be used to buy beds, bedside tables and cabinets for 3 hospital rooms.
